ADVANTAGES OF SUBLIMATION PRINTING

Growing demand for customized products which allow higher margins and do not require any inventory management.

100% customized
Unlimited design/graphic possibilities with a high quality print resolution and brilliant colours.

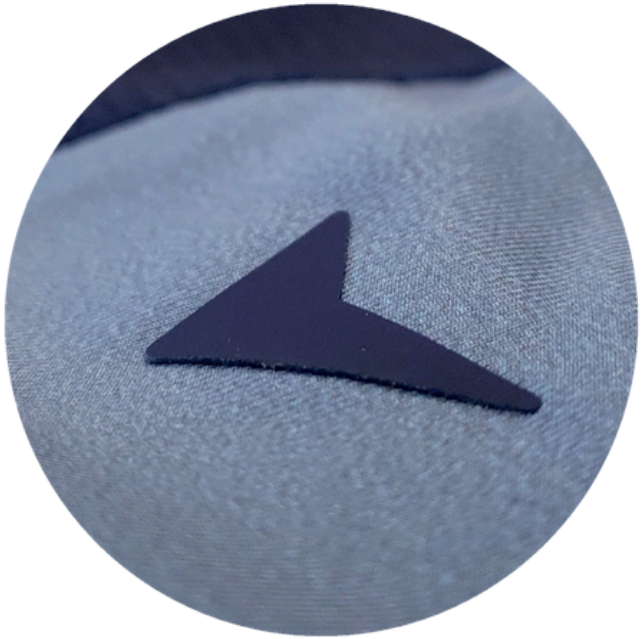

Reorders also possible after years
The products can always be re-ordered in exactly the same designs & colours of the initial order.

100% functionality & durability
The product remains extremely functional because the breathability is not affected by the application of heat transfers. Therefore, the prints are extremely durable and the product highly elastic and stretchable.

DISADVANTAGES OF FLOCK & FLEX PRINTING

of the adhesive films due to frequent washing and even peeling off of the films over time.

Higher printing costs
as each letter, club logo or sponsor logo has to be applied one by one.

Less possibility for multi-coloured logos or if possible, very expensive.

Reduced wearing comfort
due to the adhesive film applied.

No breathability
on the covered parts and therefore no humidity transport possible.

POLYESTER, “FIBRE TO FIBRE” RECYCLING: IT CAN BE DONE!

At CINDRA Enterprises, circularity in textiles is a vision we believe is both achievable and essential for the future of the industry — without compromising the quality, durability, and technical performance of the products.

Driven by continuous research and development, CINDRA is committed to exploring innovative solutions for the recovery and reuse of polyester textile waste generated through sportswear production. This initiative reflects our ambition to contribute to a more responsible manufacturing cycle by transforming used textile materials into new performance-driven fabrics and garments.

Through ongoing experimentation and product development, our teams are working to refine processes that allow recycled polyester fibres to maintain the high standards required in modern sportswear. By combining advanced manufacturing techniques with sustainable material solutions, we aim to support the evolution of “fibre-to-fibre” recycling within the textile industry.

Our long-term objective is to create garments in recycled polyester that can be recovered and reintroduced into the production cycle at the end of their lifecycle, supporting a more circular and efficient textile system. This approach demonstrates CINDRA’s commitment to innovation, sustainability, and the development of high-performance apparel for the future.

“Making the textile industry increasingly sustainable is becoming an essential part of the future of manufacturing,” says the management team at CINDRA Enterprises. “Through continuous innovation, responsible sourcing, and ongoing research & development, we are committed to exploring solutions that support circularity within the sportswear and apparel sector while maintaining the highest standards of quality and performance.”

“In recent years, we have placed a strong focus on environmental responsibility and reducing the impact of textile production. The concept of ‘fibre-to-fibre’ recycling represents an important next step in this journey. Our goal is to support the development of a more circular production system where textile materials can be recovered, reused, and transformed into new high-performance garments for the next generation of apparel,” says the CEO of CINDRA Enterprises.

“Recycling and material recovery hold enormous potential for the future of the textile industry. We believe sustainable production will become an industry standard in the years ahead. Through collaboration, innovation, and advanced manufacturing technologies, it is possible to create textile solutions that combine technical excellence with environmental responsibility.”

This initiative demonstrates the growing feasibility of circular economy practices within the textile sector, helping transform materials that would otherwise become waste into valuable new resources. By combining expertise, innovation, and sustainable manufacturing approaches, CINDRA Enterprises continues to contribute toward a more responsible and future-focused apparel industry.

Der Global Recycle Standard wird von der Textile Exchange gefördert, einer der wichtigsten internationalen Non-Profit-Organisationen für eine verantwortungsvolle und nachhaltige Entwicklung im Textilsektor. Die Norm erkennt die Bedeutung des Recyclings für das Wachstum eines nachhaltigen Produktions- und Konsummodells an, mit dem Ziel, die Reduzierung des Ressourcenverbrauchs (neue Rohstoffe, Wasser und Energie) zu fördern und die Qualität der recycelten Produkte zu erhöhen.

Der GRS sieht die Ausstellung einer von Dritten geprüften Umwelterklärung vor, die den Gehalt an recycelten Materialien in Produkten, sowohl in den Zwischen- als auch in den Endprodukten, die Aufrechterhaltung der Rückverfolgbarkeit während des gesamten Produktionsprozesses, die Beschränkung des Einsatzes von Chemikalien und die Einhaltung ökologischer und sozialer Kriterien auf allen Stufen der Produktionskette vom Recycling der Materialien über die nachfolgenden Fertigungsstufen bis hin zur Kennzeichnung des fertigen Produkts gewährleistet. Nicht von der Zerti- fizierung abgedeckte Schritte sind die Abfallsammlung, Sortierung, Auswahl und Gruppierung. Produkte und Fertigungsbetriebe können nach GRS zertifiziert werden.

Der Global Recycle Standard garantiert:

- Produkte, die mindestens 20 % Pre-Consumer- und Post-Consumer-Recyclingmaterial enthalten;
- Fertigungstätigkeiten und -prozesse, bei denen Rezyklat zur Herstellung von Zwischenprodukten (z. B. Garne und Stoffe) oder Endprodukten für den Verbraucher verwendet wird, unter Ver-

The Global Recycled Standard (GRS) is promoted by Textile Exchange, one of the most important no-profit organizations that internationally promote responsible and sustainable development in the textile sector. With this standard, Textile Exchange recognizes the fundamental importance of recycling for the growth of a model of sustainable production and consumption; it aims to encourage the reduction of resource consumption (virgin raw materials, water and energy) and to increase the quality of recycled products.

The GRS provides for the issue of a third party verified environmental statement which proves the content of recycled materials of products (both intermediate and finished), the maintenance of traceability throughout the entire production process, restrictions on the use of chemicals, and compliance with environmental and social criteria at all stages of the production chain, from the recycling of materials, to the subsequent manufacturing stages, and the labelling of the finished product. Stages not covered by certification are waste collection, sorting, selection and grouping. Products and manufacturing activities can be certified according to the GRS.

The Global Recycle Standard guarantees:

- Every manufacturing process through which the recycled material is used to make intermediate products (for example: yarns and fabrics) or finished products intended for the consumer.
- All products that are composed of at least 20% of pre-consumer and post-consumer recycled materials.

Our planet needs action. When it comes to recycling we do not just talk the talk, but walk the walk. Technical apparel should not be a burden for nature. Our green, recycled ECO fabrics are the proof that it is possible: sustainable, eco-friendly, functional and Made in Italy.

To be able to produce recycled materials, the waste in the form of PET plastic bottles is first shredded into small pieces in the recycling plant and then cleaned. The cleaned small parts are then melted and the resulting mass is pressed into the desired shape by extrusion. From this the yarn is produced, which is further processed into fabric. Finally, products such as cycling jerseys or running shirts - consisting of recycled plastic bottles - are made from this fabric.

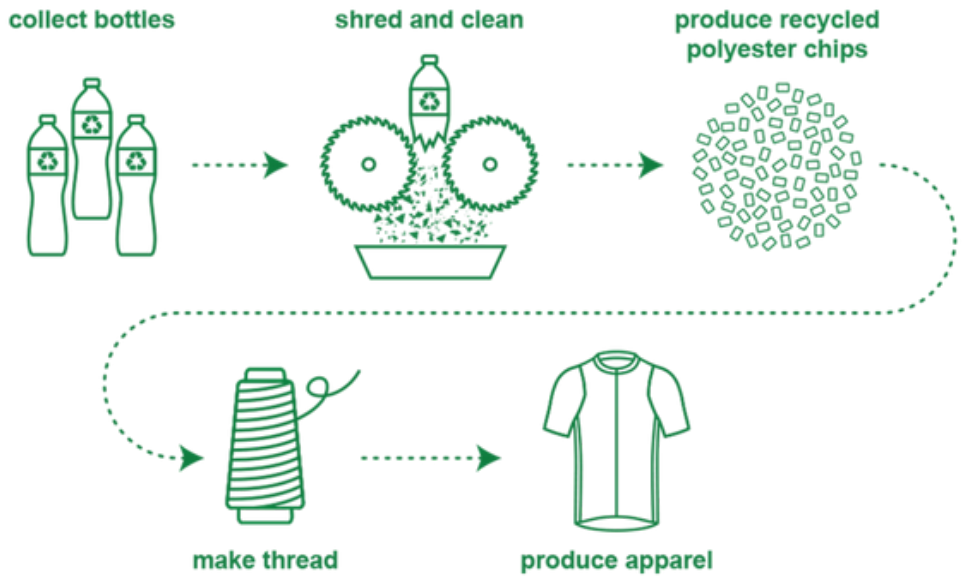

Unser Planet braucht konkretes Handeln. Wenn es um Recycling geht, lassen wir Worten Taten folgen. Technische Bekleidung sollte keine Belastung für die Natur darstellen. Unsere recycelten ECO-Stoffe sind der Beweis dafür, dass es möglich ist: nachhaltig, umweltfreundlich, funktionell und Made in Italy.

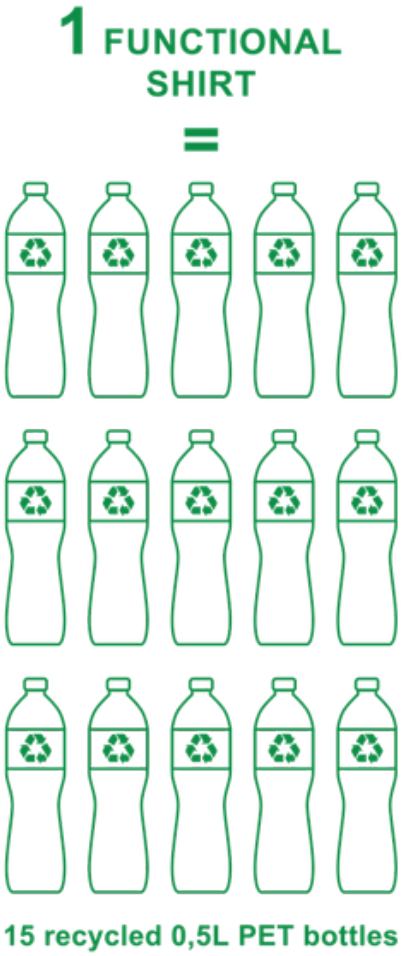

Um recycelte Stoffe herstellen zu können, werden zunächst Gebrauchsabfälle in Form von PET-Plastikflaschen in der Recyclinganlage in kleine Stücke zerkleinert und anschließend gereinigt. Die gereinigten Kleinteile werden dann geschmolzen und die dabei entstehende Masse wird durch Extrusion unter Druck in die gewünschte Form gepresst. Hieraus entsteht dann das Garn, welches zu Stoff weiterverarbeitet wird, aus welchem schließlich Produkte wie Radtrikots oder Laufshirts - bestehend aus recycelten Plastikflaschen – hergestellt werden.

Quando parliamo di riciclo, il nostro pianeta ha bisogno di azioni concrete. Questo principio lo possiamo applicare anche allo sport e nello specifico all'abbigliamento usato per l'attività sportiva. L'abbigliamento tecnico non deve diventare materiale di scarto e quindi rifiuto solido inutilizzato. I nostri tessuti ecologici e riciclati ECO sono la prova che è possibile agire per il bene del pianeta: sono sostenibili, ecologici, funzionali e Made in Italy.

Per poter produrre materiali riciclati, i rifiuti sotto forma di bottiglie di plastica PET vengono prima triturati in piccoli pezzi nell'impianto di riciclaggio e poi puliti. I piccoli pezzi vengono poi fusi ed estrusi in piccoli pellet. Da questi si produce il filato, che viene ulteriormente trasformato in tessuto. Infine, da questo tessuto si ottengono prodotti come maglie da ciclismo, running e tanti altri sport, il tutto costituito da bottiglie di plastica riciclate.

PROCESS OF RECYCLING

CINDRA nimmt den Umweltschutz sehr ernst. Wir bieten unseren Kunden deshalb verschiedene „green“ Stoffe an. Dies geshiet im Einklang mit den strengen internationalen Richtlinien, für diese Art von Stoffen.
